NORDEX FOOD is a family-owned Danish dairy company.

If you ever tried a white cheese, there is a fair chance it was from NORDEX FOOD.

Our speciality is white cheese in brine, which accounts for the majority of the production at our three dairies in Denmark, Austria and Romania. Today, we are northern Europe's largest supplier of salad cheese, feta and halloumi.

At the same time, we have a substantial trade in a wide selection of speciality cheeses from Europe to export markets around the world.

Our supply chain

Always professionally managed, we do our best to secure a strong supply chain, focusing on long-term partnerships and transparency. We believe our special work ethic and transparent partnerships with the suppliers ensures a high product quality and competitive price levels.

A premium selection of European cheeses

The Akadia Premium brand represents the best of European cheeses. We have selected the best of both White Cheeses as well as Semi Hard Yellow Cheese and many others under our new exclusive premium brand. The Akadia Premium products come both from our own production and from our long-standing partners, all so that we can offer the best products at the most competitive prices.

Combi / Danish White

Our Combi / Danish White selection is an assortment of tasty and creamy white cheese made from cow's milk and enriched with our RSPO certified oil. The product is made according to our high-quality standards at our modern production facilities in Denmark and Romania.

Analogue cheese

The analogue assortment is based on semi-hard cheeses which are full and rich in taste and consistency with a great flavour. Our analogue cheese assortment is great for cooking classic and tasty fast-food dishes such as pizzas, sandwiches and burgers. The analogue cheese work well for sale in deli-counters as the product is very well suited for slicing and grating.

Traditional white cheese

We produce our Traditional White Cheese in our dairy in Austria. Like the production of white cheese in Denmark, we use high-quality cow's milk from farmers in Austria. This results in a tasty white cheese with the characteristic structure, reminiscent of Greek feta. Made from 100% cow's milk.

Greek Feta PDO

Our Greek Feta assortment is made from pasteurised sheep's and goat's milk, matured in brine. Our selection is fresh and rich in taste and made in Greece using traditional methods. We are locally represented in Greece and have our own purchase and quality assurance team, so we control the entire supply chain. That is why the cheeses produced for us are always of outstanding quality, and why Nordex Food is the number one importer of Greek feta in the EU.

Cypriot Halloumi PDO

The traditional and classic Halloumi from Cyprus is one of Nordex Foods oldest and best-selling products. Halloumi is made from a mix of cow's, goat's and sheep's milk and traditionally served grilled. Like the grilling cheese and paneer, the halloumi is a great resource of protein, which is why the product often can be a substitute for meat.

Nordex Food is one of the largest importers of PDO halloumi in the world, which is also why we have our own local purchase and quality department making monthly audits and quality checks.
